

RARE GOLD. RARE PRICES. RARE COMMITMENT.

Auction of NGC-graded Eliasberg World Gold yields excitement, fierce bidding, and record values.

Bidders from six continents traveled to New York City on April 18th and 19th to compete for nearly three thousand gold coins and medals from the estate of Louis Eliasberg, Sr., offered by American Numismatic Rarities of Wolfeboro, NH.

In an atmosphere described as “electric” and compared to legendary auctions of the past, most of the lots surpassed their posted estimates — some by 10 times as much. The highest individual price paid was for the Venice 50 zecchini of Doge Alvise Mocenigo IV. This “singularly impressive” piece went for $379,500.

We are proud to say that the entire collection was certified by NGC. An offering this important deserved nothing less than the rarest commitment to numismatics.

- ◀ A beautiful NGC Photo Certificate accompanied each coin at auction to permanently establish the pedigree on every piece. And you can visit www.NGCcoin.com/eliasberg to see more of this collection today.

When the greatest collections go to market, they go with NGC.
